

LOCATION, LOCATION, LOCATION THE PERFECT PLACE TO LIVE AT LOCK VIEW, TEDDINGTON

It is a well known fact that location, location, location is one of the major factors when buying a new home so when Brian and Carole Thorne spotted the first 'coming soon' signs at Banner Homes' development, Lock View, Teddington, Middlesex they knew they had found the perfect place to live.

Carole Thorne continues, "Brian and I had lived in our family home in Hampton Hill for 28 years and with our son moving to America and our daughter buying a home in Twickenham we felt it was the perfect time to downsize.

We have always liked Teddington and the surrounding areas and were really keen to live by the River Thames. When we saw the first signs go into the ground at the development we spoke to local agents Snellers about the best way of securing our new home. We decided to proceed as cash buyers so in January 2010 we put our family home on the market and moved into a rented riverside apartment."

reserved. This is likely to be the last exclusive new build riverside development in Teddington so now is an excellent time to buy.

We are anticipating it won't take long before all the apartments are sold so those interested should view quickly before it is too late."

Lock View comprises 15 exceptional one, two and three bedroom apartments, all with balconies and some of the apartments benefiting from views of the River Thames and Teddington Lock. The apartments boast the excellent quality of build and specification that Banner Homes has become well known for. Each apartment features professionally designed contemporary kitchens with fully fitted appliances including a built-in coffee machine while the bathrooms include stylish white Villeroy and Boch sanitaryware with chrome fittings. There is also secure basement parking with lift access to all floors.

To see Lock View in all its splendour why not come and visit the show apartment to see for yourself how stunning they are.

"Lock View ticks all the boxes for us; it is the perfect location with restaurants and boutiques in Teddington and excellent communication links to London and airports within easy reach"

It is also a brand new apartment which was exactly what we were looking for. It means that everything will be in working order and high tech with all the latest in safety and security. As well as moving into our brand new home we decided to sell all our furniture from our old house and start with a clean canvas. It has been really exciting looking for new furniture to fit our new lifestyle."

Donna Littman of selling agent Snellers comments, "Over 70% of the apartments at Lock View have now been
